

LAXADIL

(Ispaghula Husk 3.50 gm)

Composition : Laxadil Sachet : Each sachet contains Ispaghula husk 3.50 gm.

Description : Ispaghula is an annual herb. It grows to 40 cm high. The plant has narrow leaves and clusters of white-brown flowers. Ispaghula husk has been used as a safe & effective laxative for thousands of years in Europe, Africa & Asia.

Chemical constituents : Mucilage (arabinoxylan) Fixed oil 2.5% mainly linoleic acid, oleic acid, palmitic fatty acids & starch.

Indication :

- | Constipation
- | Irritable bowels syndrome (IBS)
- | Rectal bleeding (Piles)
- | Helps healing ulcer of mucous membrane of stomach
- | Helps reducing blood cholesterol

Side effects :

Ispaghula husk is proven as safe. It is well tolerated.

Contraindication :

No report is available on Contraindication.

In pregnant & lactating mothers :

Totally safe for pregnant & lactating mothers.

Dosage :

Adult : One sachet 1-3 times daily, children : Half dose of an adult or as directed by the registered physician.

Storage :

Keep out of reach of children.

Keep away from direct sunlight. Store below 25°C in a dry place.

Supply : Laxadil sachet : Each box contains 1 x 15 = 15 Sachets.

